DEDICATION

The untimely death of MISS ANNE COGSWELL left the entire school and administration shocked. Now, as we mourn her death, we appreciate even more her contributions and the time and effort she put into them. As our senior class advisor, a teacher, and a friend, she will be greatly missed. It is, therefore, in MISS COGWELL'S memory that we dedicate this Yearbook '88.

SOMETIMES IT'S SO EASY

. . . TO LET A DAY STEP ON BY . . .

THIS IS . . .

Kindergarten — Things I Like
(1975-1976)
I like: to play outside, to swing, I like all our friends, snacks, working in letterbooks, reading, to play with trucks, to sing, to color, to play ball, Mrs. Shepard's baby, by Todd, Holly, Danielle, Chris C., Jean, Kendal, Jason, John, Mike D., Joe and Kim.

Junior High graduation, and eventual good-byes to those who left WBHS. SPECIAL MEMORIES OF TEACHER, MR. RICHARD CLIFFORD AND GUIDANCE DIRECTOR BEN LORGE.

. . . THE TIME TO REMEMBER

This is the time to remember cause it will not last forever
These are the days
to hold on to Cause we won't although we'll want to
This is the time
But time is gonna change
You've given me the best of you
But now I need the rest of you.
(B. Joel)

Town teams — baseball, softball, soccer; dance classes & recitals; loose teeth; summer recreation — swimming lessons; birthday parties, H. Mixter School, Goodale School playground, the old Goodale ballfield; "do you want to sponsor a football field?"

FINAL STEPS AT WBHS

Thank you for being a friend . . . Your heart is true. You're a pal and a confidante.

It's been six years since Mindy, Matt, Laurie S., Natalie, Todd G., Chris C., and Eddie took those steps from M. Edwards Elementary School across the street to WB Jr-Sr High.

FRIENDSHIPS AND MEMORIES

SENIOR AWARDS NIGHT . . . FOR THE GOOD TIMES

Awards Night, Class Gift Dedication, and Buffet were celebrated on May 31, 1988. Special academic, art, music, leadership and service awards were presented.

Don't look so sad; I know it's over. But life goes on, and this old world will keep on turning. Let's just be glad we had some time To spend together.

(K. Kristopherson).

SENIOR SECTION, Formals, Informals

Seniors will ride almost anything to school, except a 'school bus' — Once they arrive, they can be found on the 'Senior Bench'.

A NEW STEP in Administration

This year's new administration has brought many changes to West Boylston Jr-Sr High School. Though at times the adjustments have been bumpy, our new Doctors continue to earn respect of both faculty and students. Our energetic principal, Dr. Mark Masterson is eager and willing to listen to students, and his enthusiasm is always evident whether he's walking briskly down the hall with his clipboard or attending practice with the girls' basketball team. Our assistant principal, Dr. Paula Burk offers a different perspective with tales of past experiences in exotic places like Africa. We are sure they will continue working to make our school stronger academically and better overall.

Welcome to West Boylston

OUR APPRECIATION . . .
for GUIDANCE

to Mrs. Bullock, new advisor for fixing schedule problems to Senior advisors and couselor to Mrs. DeWaele, secretary to Mrs. Rice, thanks

David O'Donnell, Dir. Spec. Ed.

Superintendent Leo Sullivan

Audrey Mautner, Supt. Excellence Award

As the CLASS of 1988 prepares to leave West Boylston Jr-Sr High for the final time, I would like to extend our collective best wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead. We have done our best for you; if you have done your best, your future should be bright. If not, I would encourage you with the age-old admonition, "It's never too late."

It is imperative we understand that we take from this life equal in proportion to that which we put into it. Many have sacrificed in order to provide you with a good education. I encourage you, when your time comes, to give back to society willingly in order that subsequent generations may enjoy the same benefits you have known growing up in West Boylston.

It's all before you, '88, — make the best of it! . . . Superintendent L. Sullivan

INDISPENSABLE

WHERE WOULD WE BE WITHOUT THEM? Our teachers serve as our class advisors, helping us with endless fund raisers (they support those, too!); they are our coaches, our chaperones . . . sports, concerts, art festivals and exhibitions, math meets, plays, field trips, honor societies, dances . . .

THANK YOU!

The HEART OF WEST BOYLSTON JR-SR HIGH

Everyone looks to Suellen Supernor and Kathy Bavosi for answers to their problems. Teachers pick up their mail, make phone calls to parents, & prepare class work for copy machine in the office.

Students from the Business Dept. work in the office as part of office practicum. Attendance is checked, late arrivals, early dismissals, & emergencies all stop at the office.

SUELLEN SUPERNOR

KATHY BAVOSI

Despite endless phone calls, typing and copy machine projects, and a constant process of teachers and students entering or leaving the office, Sue and Kathy find time to help each and everyone. Our yearbook would not have been possible without them. THANK YOU, SUE & KATHY!

SPORTS 1987-1988

Fall, winter and spring athletics have students literally running after school, some evenings, weekends, and vacation days. Many students play more than one sport during the year and some play on town teams, too. WBHS teams advancing to playoffs (by spring) were Varsity Football and Girls Varsity Basketball.

FOOTBALL

BEST SEASON

The powerful Lions football team, under the coaching of Dick Priestley, had its most successful season ever, finishing 7-2-1, just missing a berth in the Super Bowl. The team was anchored by tri-captains Todd Granger, John DiPietro and Matt Benoit, and a strong cast of other seniors and juniors.

HEY, ALL YOU LIONS FANS!!

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Cathy Dugan (C), Amy Fortin, Meaghan Mahoney, Megan Cleary, Kim McGoldrick, Melissa Salluce, Carol Webb, Lori Jackson, Jodie Blake, Lisa Langhill, Kim Holmes, Tara Clark, Tina Belsito, Amy Willoughby.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS: Amie Bavosi, Beth Finn, Michelle Gardner, Michelle Greene, Steph Pasquale, Jodi Silven, Lisa Lenkarski, Jen Gleason, Sarah Pehl, Susan Priestley.

GIRLS' J.V. SOCCER

Athletic Director Ronald Ekblom added another team to his full schedule and found out how well the girls on the team played soccer while enjoying the sport at the same time. Some of the team had been playing since the inception of town soccer when they were in third grade.

Team: Seniors — Kim McMillan, Kellie Buck, Wendy Givan, Kim Alicandro, Melissa Supernor and Danielle Mullen; Sheri Newton, Michelle Aubrey, Peggy Kavanagh, Christina Bebas, Kerri Hubbard, Saara Atchue and Cori Howland all contributed to a successful season.

CROSS COUNTRY

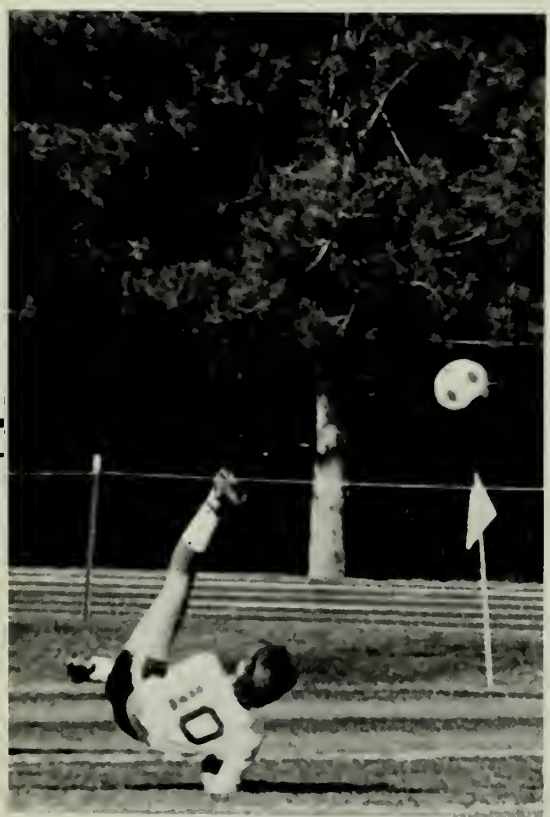
Varsity soccer again with just one girl — Lisa Hovsepian — who joined her twin Leon Hovsepian, & Kevin Materas, George Kokalis, Pat McEnaney, Jay Brunetta, Chris Rotti, Scott Wilson, James Ekberg, Scott Atchue, Dave Hubbard, Dave Gambaccini, Peter Bryngleson and Doug Boland.



J.V. Soccer players have been on town championship teams and continue their soccer skills: Josh Alicandro, Brett Richards, Chris Cavan, Nick Bebas, Jeff Arena, Jim Montville, Sean Tobin, Kevin Grimes, Jeff McKay, Sean Ahearn, Doug Boland and David Desmarais.

FIELD HOCKEY

The fall Field Hockey season was somewhat disappointing, as far as records go, BUT, more importantly, the team enjoyed playing their sport. Led by Seniors, Tracey Bahn, Melissa Esteves, Laurie Scanlon and Colleen Dugan, the girls were coached by Bev Schofield.

Coach Bev Schofield is the key person in West Boylston's very popular field hockey program: Coach, trainer, and main cheerleader.

A STEP ON COURT: GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Lisa Hovsepian exhibits her shooting form.

Team listens carefully?

J.V.'s show their stuff.

The West Boylston girls' team led by Coach Dick Priestley and senior captains Audrey Mautner and Kim Mcmillan, finished another strong season this year. Qualifying for the districts again, they lost their first and only district game. After losing three senior starters, Coach Priestley will continue to build and strengthen his team with sights on next year's district games.

SENIOR BALL

On March 25, 1988, the senior class returned to the Worcester Marriott for their semi-formal Senior Ball. Dinner, dancing, and looking forward to another party at George's were part of the evening.

WONDERFUL TONIGHT

. . . It's late in the evening . . .
. . . We go to our party
And everyone turns to see
This beautiful lady
Is poking around with me
And then she asks me
Do you feel alright
And I say, "Yes,
I feel wonderful tonight"

COUNCIL TRIP

Members of the Student Council attended a councilors' convention on Cape Cod in April, 1988, where they met with other councilors from MA.

ART & MUSIC

The Annual Arts & Music Exhibit was held in April 1988, in the school, a change from the outdoors — Saturday ones in recent years — subject to rainstroms. An evening of musical performances, vocal and instrumental, craft & art demonstrations, and a video contest — do your own! — were thoroughly delightful.
Congratulations to Mrs. Emily Boosahda and Mr. H. Maynard.

SUPER SPECIAL

West Boylston Junior-Senior High students demonstrate their talents in the lab, in the kitchen, at dances, in sports, at practices, in shop, and when encouraging their fellow students to do their best.

JUNIOR HIGH STEPS

JUNIOR HIGH DANCE

Hawaii was the theme for the first dance of the school year. The junior high had their dance on the Friday before Homecoming week and it looks like they know how to enjoy themselves.

Teachers like Mrs. Sharron Bouvier make the transition from elementary school to junior high so much easier!

Hi, Tracie

Nicole, Lisa and Sarah

. . . A FRIEND

. . . just call out my name and you know wherever I am I'll come running to see you again.
Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall All you have to do is call And I'll be there, Yes, I will. You've got a friend.
(J. Taylor).

DEPEND ON ME

You can depend on me, over and over Cause I intend to be the one who makes you laugh until you cry . . .
Years may come and go,
Here's one thing I know —
All my life, you're a friend of mine
. . . (C. Clemons & J. Browne)

KEEP SHINING

Keep smiling, keep shining, knowing you can always count on me, for sure, that's what friends are for.
In good times, in bad times,
I'll be on your side forevermore, —
That's what friends are for . . .

YEARBOOK '88 STAFF

CLASS GIFT, MISS COGSWELL DEDICATION

Preceding Senior Awards, on May 31, 1988, the Senior Class of '88, dedicated a new garden to the memory of Miss Anne Cogswell, to whom this yearbook is dedicated. Talks by Principal Masterson, Mr. Maynard, George Kokalis and Mindy Cranston, and John Cogswell were part of the ceremony beside WB's 'Lion.'

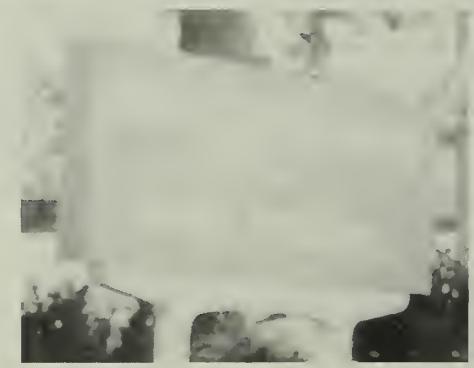
If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me? I must be travelin' on now ... (L. Skynard)

GRADUATION

June 3, 1988 . . . it finally arrived, with rain showers! Decision was made at 4pm to hold it indoors. Class Valedictorian — Melissa Esteves, Class Salutatorian — Matt Benoit, Honor addressees — Audrey Mautner, Susan Mautner, Principal Mark Masterson and Superintendent Sullivan spoke to graduates, families & friends.

WHEN THE BEST WAS YET TO COME . . .

Somewhere down the road
Our roads are going to cross again.
It really doesn't matter when
But somewhere down that road!!
(B. Manilow)



It's funny how time flies,
When the best was yet to come.
What's so good about goodbye,
When the best was yet to come . . .
(Bryan Adams)
